

Technician License Course

Chapter 8

Section 8.4

Third-Party Communications

Third-Party Communications

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity
  - Could mean actually speaking on the air

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity
  - Could mean actually speaking on the air
  - Could mean passing a message on behalf of a third party

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity
  - Could mean actually speaking on the air
  - Could mean passing a message on behalf of a third party
- Two situations – different rules

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity
  - Could mean actually speaking on the air
  - Could mean passing a message on behalf of a third party
- Two situations – different rules
  - Within the US

Third-Party Communications

- Third-party communication – transmissions on behalf of an unlicensed entity
  - Could mean actually speaking on the air
  - Could mean passing a message on behalf of a third party
- Two situations – different rules
  - Within the US
  - Communication that crosses international borders

Third-Party within US

Third-Party within US

- No special rules.

Third-Party within US

- No special rules.
- Just make sure the message is non-commercial in nature.

Third-Party Across Borders

Third-Party Across Borders

- Third-party agreement with US must exist

Third-Party Across Borders

- Third-party agreement with US must exist
  - Check for current third-party agreements from ARRL website or FCC sources if in doubt

Third-Party Across Borders

- Third-party agreement with US must exist
  - Check for current third-party agreements from ARRL website or FCC sources if in doubt
  - Most agreements are within ITU Region II

Third-Party Across Borders

- Third-party agreement with US must exist
  - Check for current third-party agreements from ARRL website or FCC sources if in doubt
  - Most agreements are within ITU Region II
  - This includes contest operation

Third-Party Across Borders

- Third-party agreement with US must exist
  - Check for current third-party agreements from ARRL website or FCC sources if in doubt
  - Most agreements are within ITU Region II
  - This includes contest operation
- Identify with both stations' call signs

Are there any questions?

Online exam review and practice questions:

<http://www.arrl.org/examreview>